Extract from the C.B file 112-41-1-2 regarding the Charge allowance to Mr R. V. Iswappa, Asst Commr in charge of the Tumkur, District Treasury, for having been in additional charge of the current duties of the Deputy Commissioner and District Magistrate, Tumkur District from 29-6-41 to 7-7-41.

My suggestion that for granting charge allowance, a minimum period of 15 days may be adopted as a working rule has been kindly accepted by Govt in the P.W.D. I suggest for consideration that the same may be adopted as a uniform working rule for all departments unless there are paramount and administrative objection to the adoption of a uniform course in all departments

I would suggest a minimum of ten days

TYPING SECTION
20 JAN. 1942

Art. 408 deals with grant of leave & delegation of leave. The allowance itself is granted under Art. 95, and is allowed in cases where "a substantial increase of responsibility & some additional work" is involved. Perhaps an explanatory note under this article that for this purpose a minimum period of 10 days is generally considered necessary may be appropriate.

The papers may perhaps be perused by the Comptroller who may be requested to kindly suggest a suitable amendment

DJS A may create some confusion. The draft put up is alright as it is.
